PERSHING STATES 5,500 MEN STILL LISTED MISSING

Compares with British Missing 161,800 — French 29,000

WASHINGTON, March 27.—General Pershing reported to the war department today that there are still 5,500 officers and men of the expeditionary forces listed as missing. This total compares with the British official figures of 161,800 missing and the French of 29,000.

All of the 5,500 names have been reported as "missing" in casualty lists already published, the report said. Re-interments of bodies from isolated graves in the centralized cemeteries is furnishing additional identification in a number of cases and for this reason the records of the "grave registration service" are being carefully studied.

Re-examination of grave registration reports and also of hospital records referred to by General Pershing was said at the war department to explain the "killed in action" and wounded in action casualties still appearing in the daily casualty lists sent out by the department.

Pershing's Report.

The British war office, General Pershing's report said, had adopted the policy of considering 26 weeks in the case of an officer and 30 weeks for an enlisted man as the length of time after the man had been recorded as missing before death is presumed. In the French army, he said, no definite period had been fixed.

"No accurate estimate of unreported deaths can be given," said General Pershing's report. "There are, however, approximately 5,500 missing to be accounted for, all of whom have been reported to Washington as missing. Re-interment of bodies removed from isolated graves to centralized cemeteries is furnishing additional identification of deaths hitherto reported as missing. This is especially true of re-burials or bodies originally buried by allied units to which American troops were attached, identification being either incomplete or imperfectly registered at interment.

"Deaths of American soldiers in French hospitals of which only meagre and often incorrect records on file are likewise disclosed by reburial of these bodies resulting in complete identification.

"Access to sites of prison camps in Germany and to territory formerly within enemy's lines is leading to discovery of many American graves and identification of casualties previously reported as missing. Each company or other unit of the American expeditionary force has heretofore been furnished a complete list of officers and men carried as missing up to Feb. 1. All units are required to display such list in places accessible to members of the command for the purpose of casualty information from every possible source. This expedient is resulting in locating hitherto unknown graves and identification showing present status and whereabouts of many battle casualties.

Buried Under Difficulties.

"Consideration should be given to the fact that method of warfare as well as the extent of terrain fought over, lent exceptional difficulties to discovery and burial of dead. Burial parties frequently completed their mission under heavy fire. Often burial was in darkness making identification difficult and often impossible.

"Reburials are now furnishing means of identification in a great majority of cases. For this reason grave registration and chaplain reports are being again investigated. A small percentage of such reports investigated are proving to be cases of American dead previously unreported as such. As rapidly as identification can be completed from information originally filed or subsequently obtained from every possible source correct present status of each case is being reported by cable."

FORMER EMPEROR HAS NOTHING TO SAY

AMERONGEN, Holland, Wednesday, March 26.—(By The Associated Press.)—Replying to a renewed request today for an interview, former Emperor William sen this verbal message:

"I am sorry I cannot change my attitude in connection with making a public declaration. The time has not arrived for me to speak."

Numerous inquiries were made here today with regard to rumors that the ex-emperor had paid a visit to Amsterdam. These rumors were absolutely unfounded, the only person from the castle who has been in Amsterdam recently was Court Marshal von Gontard, who bears some resemblance to Herr Hohenzollern.

GIVES UP JOB TO RETURNED SOLDIER.

Chicago, March 27.—Louis F. Oswald, 18 years old believes that every returned soldier should be given a job. Today Oswald gave up his position with a railroad to Coral Ritchie, who, because two fingers had been shot away, could not find employment. He also had three body wounds. Oswald then enlisted in the navy.

Plan To Test Constitutionality Of Prohibition

CHICAGO, March 27.—A decision to make an early contest of the constitutionality of the war time prohibition restriction effective July 1 was reached today at the close of a two day session of the distillers committee and about seventy five officials of as many distilling concerns. Instructions to that effect were given to Levy Mayer, chief counsel for the committee.

The announcement that legality of the agricultural bill's rider providing for prohibition until demobilization shall have ended as passed by congress Nov. 21 would be attacked by the courts at an early date was made in an official announcement from George F Dietrle of Cincinnati, secretary of the committee. It was not disclosed where the action would be filed. Mr. Mayer had informed the committee that in his opinion the act exceeds the powe of congress and that its constitutionality force, effect and interpretation were involved in doubt.

The committee holding that the law as enacted tends to destroy the property valued at several hundred millions of dollars, in the form of distilled spirits of the volume somewhere between fifty and seventy five millions of gallons which it was estimated would be in bond and in the hands of wholesalers next June 30, authorized its counsel to secure a speedy and final judicial determination of all the questions involved

HARDING COMPLETES TESTIMONY BEFORE HOUSE COMMITTEE

DES MOINES, Ia., March 27. Gov. W. L. Harding, completing his testimony today in the Iowa house judiciary committee's investigation of the Rathbun pardon case, denied emphatically that he had received a bribe in any form for granting the pardon.

The governor reiterated his statement that he granted the pardon because he believed Ernest Rathbun innocent after receiving the records in the case and the records for clemency from the trial judge and prosecuting attorney. Two other witnesses were heard before recess was taken. They were W. C. Jones, foreman of the Ida county grand jury that recently investigated the pardon and Bruce Snell of Ida Grove. Jones told the committee that the grand jury had voted six indictments in connection with Rathbun's successful efforts to obtain a pardon, but at the instance of Attorney General H. M. Havner, five of them were quashed and only the one for perjury against Ernest Rathbun was returned.

The indictments quashed included two against George Clark, the Rathbun attorney, for subordination of perjury and conspiracy and one each for conspiracy against William Rathbun, Sr., and William Rathbun, Jr., father and brother of Ernest. It was the first mention made in testimony before the committee of the part Attorney General Havner took in obtaining revocation of the pardon which resulted in Rathbun's imprisonment in the Anamosa reformatory for service of a life sentence for criminal assault.

Jones testified the indictments were dismissed as a result of a bargain between the state and the Rathbun's and Clark and the witness said the jury "had decided this was the best thing to do, after Havner had presented th agreement to them."

Testimony of Bruce Snell under questioning by Special Counsel Byers produced nothing new.

Referring to the bargaining between the state and the Rathbuns as testified to by Jones, Counsel Byers sair:

"You know now that Clark, who is guilty beyond all others in the case was to go free and this 21 year old boy (Rathbun) was to go to the penitentiary for life, to save Clark. Have you done anything to rectify this wrong?"

"No," the governor replied, "I haven't done anything. I haven't been in a position to do anything while I am being investigated myself."

The governor was then dismissed and it was said he would not be called again unless there were unforseen developments.

Despite earlier predictions it now appears the investigation will not be completed until next week.

PERSHING AWARDS CIVILIAN MEDALS

WASHINGTON, March 27.—Gen. Pershing has awarded the Distinguished Service Medal to six officials of the American government for exceptionally meritorious and distinguished services. They are Edward N. Hurley, chairman of the shipping board; Paul D. Cravath, representative of the treasury department; George McFadden, representative in France of the war trade board; Dwight W. Morrow, member of the American shipping comission; L. H. Sherman, member of the American inter-allied maritime council, and Edward R. Stettinius, special assistant secretary of war.

COAL OPERATORS ASSAIL RAILROAD ADMINISTRATION

Charged with Unfair Practices to Drive Prices Down

WASHINGTON, March 27.—Bituminous coal operators thru the national coal association announced tonight that they would not resume conferences with the industrial board of the department of commerce with a view to readjusting coal prices until "the cooperation and support of the railroad administration and other government departments buying coal had been secured."

Whenever the board could assure such cooperation the coal men said they would be willing to continue the conference. The operators who represent about three fourths of the country's bituminous production adopted a resolution setting forth their attitude and issued a statement charging the railroad administration with adoption of "unfair practices which would drive the price of railroad fuel below the cost of production."

Members of the industrial board of which George N. Peek is chairman, refused to comment on the conference with the coal men. It was understood, however, that in the conference the price fixed by the railroad administration and other governmental agencies for coal was the chief contention.

Roads Use 30 Per Cent

Representatives of coal industry told the board that approximately thirty per cent of the production of bituminous coal was consumed by the railroads and accordingly prices at which the railroad administration had bought coal had a direct bearing on the prices to the public. "Under these circumstances," said the statement issued by the coal association, "the operators consider it vital for the board and the industry to know at the outset whether or not the United States railroad administration would accept the decision of the canference as to reasonable and fair prices for coal and make its purchases of railroad fuel at those prices."

It developed at the meeting that in spite of Director Hines' publicly announced policy in the purchase of railroad fuel, the United States railroad administration had adopted unfair practices which would drive the price of railroad fuel below the cost of production. This would necessitate advancing the price of coal for the general consuming public to a point sufficient to absorb the loss involved in the production of coal for railroad use. It was therefore apparent that unless the railroad administration would lend its cooperation and bind itself to accept the findings of the conference no beneficial results for the general public could be obtained.

"Such assurance of cooperation on the part of the railroad administration was not forthcoming.

"The operators accordingly made clear to the board their readiness to resume the consideration of the question of prices whenever the cooperation and support of the railroad administration and other giverment departments buying coal had been secured."

WILL USE PLANES TO CARRY FOODSTUFFS

PARIS March 27.—(French Wireless Service.) — German bombing airplanes of the Friedrichshafen type which were surrendered under a clause of the armistice will be used by the department of civilian aviation in transporting foodstuffs between Paris and Bordeaux. The airplanes will be equipped to carry three tons of parcels and bundles.

Before the end of this week the department plans to have in operation an aerial post between Paris and Valenciennes by way of Maubeuge.

SERBIAN OFFICIALS CHARGED WITH CRIMES

PARIS, March 27.—(By the Associated Press.)—The Montenegrin government has handed to the peace conference a memorandum accussing Serbian officials with the following crimes in Montenegro:

"Massacring, torturing and starving the inhabitants; internment of civilians; forced enrollment of the inhabitants in the Serbian army, confiscation and destruction of privats property; destruction of historic monuments, depreciation of Montenegrin currency and misuse of the white flag. The memorandum accuses Serbia also of invading the territory of its allies and usurping authority. The Montegrin governent demands the punishment of crimes official Serbia has committed against the allies.

FRANCE LOANED $100,000,000

Washington, March 27. — France was given a credit of $100,000,000 by the treasury today and Greece was given $3,858,000 additional. This makes the total credits to France $2,617,477,000; to Greece $43,412,000, and a total for all allies of $9,036,269,000.

Evidence Tends to Show Organized Baseball a Trust

WASHINGTON, March 27.—Testimony designed to show that organized baseball controls the market in players thru reservation clauses in contracts and thereby is a trust within the meaning of the Sherman anti-trust act was continued today in the District of Columbia supreme court in the damage suit of the Baltimore Federal League club against the National and American Leagues and certain officials of the defunct Federal League. Witnesses appearing today included a number of baseball players most of whom were in the Federal League.

George Maisel, a baseball player, sketched his professional career thru the minor league into the major league and then back to the minors. He testified that only a few days ago a contract had been sent him by a ball club on the Pacific Coast the terms of which were not at all satisfactory. He added that because of the rules and regulations under which organized baseball operates he either had to accept the unsatisfactory contract or quit organized ball. A deposition containing testimony given in another case by David Fultz, president of the Players Fraternity was read to the jury. Fultz asserted that the chairman of the National commission had requested during the test between the Federal League and the Players Fraternity expel any player who jumped to the federals.

Counsel for the Baltimore Club made an effort to introduce testimony given during previous baseball litigations by Joseph Vila a New York baseball reporter, in which Ban Johnson, president of the American League was quoted as saying some derogatory things about the Federal League. Counsel for the organized baseball interests objected to the introduction of this testimony and arguments on the objection were proceeding when the court adjourned.

THREE ARMY OFFICERS CALLED BY DEFENSE

NEW YORK, March 27.—Three army officers were called as witnesses for the defense today in the court martial of Captain Edwin C. Weisgerber, gas and chemical engineer of Pittsburgh, charged with criminal offenses involving alleged disloyalty to the United States and sympathy with Germany. They testified that Weisgerber had been of invaluable assistance to the government in furnishing chemicals to various branches of the army and navy and that they had never observed any unpatriotic action on his part.

Captains C. L. Harrod and Charles H. Ruth with the photographic section of the army each declared Weisgerber had made and furnished chemicals which they were unable to obtain anywhere else. Harrod decared his department was unable to obtain "metol" a chemical used in developing, manufacture of which was largely confined to Germany before the war and that Weisengerber was given a one ounce sample of the material and returned four or five days later with one pound. He said Weisgerber furnished a dye compound which proved very satisfactory in coloring motion picture films. Major Oliver B. Zimmerman who was Weisgerber's superior officer in the engineering corps described the defendant as "distinctly capable and his work was completely satisfactory."

"I would be remiss in my duty," he said, "if I should say Captain Weisgerber was other than patriotic."

The witness declared that the fuel administration had adopted a hostile attitude toward Weisgerber and his so-called "liberty fuels" Major Zimmerman said Weisgerber had applied for and received thirteen patents for his inventions and discoveries while under his command and that he had submitted these to the government free of all royalities for army and navy use.

TELEGRAPHERS WILL BALLOT ON STRIKE

CHICAGO, March 27.—Ballots calling for a vote on the question of a strike have been mailed to telegraph and telephone operators belonging to the Commercial Telegraphers' Union of America, it was learned today. The demands which the Union is making, according to the ballot sent out, include recognition of the union, the right of collective bargaining, an increase of pay and reinstatement of members of the union discharged during the last year.

It was said at union headquarters here that it probably would be a month before the result of the vote is known.

Chicago, March 27.—George T. Page of Peoria, Ill., president of them American Bar association took the oath of office as a judge of the United States circuit court of appeals here today. He succeeds the late Christian C. Kohlsaat. Other federal judges witnessed the ceremony.

Franco-German Frontier Before Super-Council

PARIS, March 27.—(By The Associated Press.)—The super-council of the president and premiers now known as the council of four, divided its labors today between the "white house" and M. Clemenceau's private office adjoining the war office.

The Frenca-German frontier was the chief topic of discussion this following upon an agreement reached last night on reparation for war damages. It is understood that this agreement includes the vital points of the total amount of indemnity, which will not be announced at present as likely to cause discussion and arouse hostility in enemy quarters.

It is noted as a coincidence that a German financial commission is being chosen to come to Versailles, where the settlement of this branch may include all interests.

The frontier question turns on the disposition of the Saar Valley coal regions and the west bank of the Rhine. The territorial experts have said their last word and frankly declare that it is a question now of political expediency, on wihch the super-council alone can pass.

Marshal Foch and General Tasker H. Bliss were called into the council during the afternoon indicating that military questions including the serious situation in Hungary and Russia were receiving attention.

President Wilson who has virtually been silent since his return to Paris believes the time is opportune for a statement which will allay apprehension over the delay and show the revision of the covenant of the league of nations had proceeded at night sessions without any interruption to the other main questions.

League Will Not Delay Peace.

President Wilson today issued the following statement:

"In view of the very surprising impression which seems to exist in some quarters that its is the discussion of the commision on the league of nations that are delaying the final formulation of peace, I am very glad to take the oportunity of reporting that the conclusions if this commission were th efirst to be laid before the plenary conference."

"They were reported on Feb. 14th, and the world has had a full month in which to discuss every feature of the draft covenant then submitted.

"During the last few days the commission has been engaged in an effort to take advantage of the criticiss which the publication of the covenant has fortunately drawn out. A committee of the commission has also had the advantage of a conference with representatives of the neutral states, who are evidencing a very deep interest and a practically unanimous dsire to align t hemselves with the league.

"The revised covenant is now practically finished. It is in the hands of a committee for the final process of drafting and will be presented a second time to the public.

"The conferences of the commission have invariably been held at times when they could not interfere with the consultation of those who have undertaken to formulate the general conclusions of the peace conference with regard to the many other complicated problems of peace. So that the members of the commission congratulate themselves on the fact that no part of their conferences has ever interposed any form of delay."

EYE-WITNESS REPORTS ON SERIES OF POGROMS

LONDON, March 27.—(By the Associated Press.—The Zionist organization reports having received from an eye-witness news of a series of pogroms in the Ukraine organized by Haidamaks with a "death regiment" at their head.

Hundreds of Jews and Jewesses were killed or wounded according to the reports. Jewish nobilities were drowned or shot and Jewish workmen were subjected to shameful treatment.

The death regulation is declared not to have spared a single Jewish township between Kiev and Backmatsch.

DICKERSON DECLARES HE IS STILL PRESIDENT

New York, March 27.—E. W. Dickerson who was president of the Western League last year but went to France with the 32nd Division as a war correspondent, gave out a statement tonight in which he declared he still was the president of the baseball organization and challenged the "legality of the league's maintenance of Al Tearney" of Chicago as its chief executive.

SITUATION IN EASTERN ADRIATIC SERIOUS

Paris, March 27.—(By The Associated Press.)—Peace conference circles were disturbed today over the paradoxical situation in the eastern Adriatic. Almost simultaneously with the Italian action in lifting the blockade in that region the Serbian press published a decree prohibiting importation from and exportation to Italy, thus nullifying the Italian action. Details have not yet reached Paris.

FINAL DRAFT OF LEAGUE COVENANT NEAR COMPLETION

Contains No Reference to Monroe Doctrine

PARIS, March 27.—(By the Associated Press) — Containing neither any reference to the Monroe Doctrine nor to the Japanese proposal for recognition of the racial equality of nations, the draft of the covenant of the league of nations today is in the hands of the special drafting committee.

The draft was completed Wednesday night at a sitting of the full commission and the covenant is expected to be ready in completed form early next week. The two amendments around which has centered the greatest interest and much divergence of opinion, however, may be offered either in the council of ten or to the plenary peace conference to which the covenant must go for final action.

Among other amendments adopted Wednesday night was one directly recognizing the principle of woman suffrage in that it provides that the offices of the league are open to women as well as men.

The much discussed question as to the policy of the withdrawal from membership in the league was settled by an amendment permitting withdrawal on two years notice but not until such nation has filled out its international obligations.

Article Ten Untouched.

Article X of the covenant to which the Monroe Doctrine amendment would apply stands in its originial form. President Wilson having reserved for the present the amendment which had been prepared as expressing the views of the American delegation. It is now explained that it was not the exact text but only the general form of the amendment which was given to the press and that hence criticism must be withheld for the present.

Careful soundings are being taken to ascertain the reception that is likely to be given this amendment by other delegations. If unfriendly sentiment developes or the pressing of another and obnoxious amendments is threatened as a consequence of insistence upon the Monroe Doctrine, it is said the amendment may be altogether withheld.

It has been learned that thus for the result of these inquiries has not been wholly encouraging to the advocates of the amendment but that they will be continued until the attitude of all the delegations is ascertained. Since the first mention of the desire of the Japanese to secure an amendment recognizing equality before the law for all nationals of the league of nations states in other countries the Japanese delegates have not pressed their amendment before the commission itself.

They have however, been canvassing the delegations with various forms of such as amendment endeavoring to find out the feeling toward it.

Racial Equality Clause

They ran aquarely on one reef today when Premier Hughes of Australia declared without qualification that the Australian delegation would not support or stand in favor of any amendment of any kind whatever containing the Japanese desires.

As a matter of fact the Japanese amendment did not come before the commission last night but it is understood its authors have not abandoned the idea of obtaining an expression of it from the council of ten and perhaps from the plenary peace conference itself.

An important amendment adopted last night provides for the creation of a committee on organization of the league which is to be empowered to proceed with arrangements for the assembly securing the necessary buildlings and perfecting the secretariat forces all in advance of the ratification of the treaty. But the acts of this committee will be subject to the approval of the ratifying body.

Another amendment gathers into one section all of the separate conventions which are to be incorporated in the covenant such as those relating to labor commerce and finance so that these are not made a part of the treaty but that the countries signatory agreed to do the things setforth therein. This would leave the league only to execute the terms of such conventions as may be agreed upon by the separate states. Provision is to be made for similar treatment of other conventions on other subjects such as white slavery and the opium traffic which are likely hereafter to be inserted in the covenant.

The league of the mandatory article has been changed so as to make it clear that no nation shall be obliged to act as a mandatory.

Generally the language of the whole covenant has been clarified, particularly Article I to meet the change of Nicholas Murray Mutlerf, president of Columbus University of ungrammatical language and the words 'high contracting parties' appear now only in that one article.

Talks On Terms To Be Imposed Upon Germany

WEIMAR, via Copenhagen, March 27.—(By The Associated Press.)—Speaking today in the national assembly Philip Scheidemann, the chancellor said semi-official and non-officials were increasing daily that "fresh aggravations in the peace conditions are expected to be announced; that unprecedented sums in compensation are to be imposed; that wide stretches of purely German territory are to be taken, and that crushing restrictions are to be imposed in financial and military matters."

"Assuredly a large part of these alleged conditions are invented," the chancellor continued, "so that by repetition they will accustom us to these unheard of demands and the final conditions may seem almost bearable to us. They are invented in order to create an atmosphere which will suffocate protest even against a peace of violence. Our peoples which were ill treated by the armistice more cruelly than by the war, recognize this method. A cry not of a chauvinist nature but of the deepest despair, which appeals to the highest there is—to the conference of humanity—is going up thruout Germany."

Herr Scheidemann said the protests against the alleged conditions were due to patriotic fears. The government knew this loyalty to the empire was the most valuable possession entrusted to its control and would not permit it to be entrenched upon at home or abroad. The chancellor appealed to the people to stand together adding:

"The so-called radicals of the Left have no right to protest against acts of oppression for we are responsible under the treaties of Brest-Litovsk and Bucharest."

Declaring that Great Britain had rejected an appeal to establish an international tribunal to investigate responsibility for the war, Herr Scheidemann said:

"Even if Germany were responsible of all the crimes she is accused of, has she thereby lost the right to protest against fetters? Fetters which throttle her? Spa? Spa, was worse than Brest-Litovsk because Spa shows that it learned nothing from Brest-Litovsk."

NEW HUNGARIAN GOVERNMENT WILL RAISE LARGE ARMY

BASLE, March 27.—(French Wireless Service.) — The new Hungarian government has begun re-organization of a revolutionary army to be requited from the organized proletarist and the soldiers and workmen now mobilized. The chief of the red army reports received from Budapest say is the adviser of the revolutionary government but control of the conduct and organization of the army will be in the hands of the people's commissioner for military affairs. The soldiers will get 450 crowns monthly and will be equipped, armed and fed at the expense of the state. Two or more soldiers belonging to the same family will get an extra allowance of fifty crowns a month, and those who have dependents will get extra pay of 300 crowns every six months.

The normal value of the Austrian crown before the war was 30.3 cents.

Government Decree.

Copenhagen, March 27.—A Budapest despatch recived here outlines a decree issued by the new revolutionary government which places all industrial enterprises employing more than twenty workers under the control of the workers themselves. The decree also provides that these establishments are to be under the management of commissaries appointed by the ministry of social production.

The Budapest municipal authorities were informed today that the proletarist has placed the management of all the affairs of the capital in the hands of a provisional committee.

The government has issued an order making work compulsory, taking the stand that only those working manually or mentally have a right to live in a proletariat state. The order says that the state will be obliged to support all persons incapable of working or those for whom employment cannot be provided.

Message From Lenine.

Copenhagen, March 27.—Premier Lenine of the Russian Soviet government has sent a wireless dispatch to Bela Kun, the Hungarian minister of foreign affairs asking for guarantees that the new Hungarian government is really communistic and not merely Socialistic.

In his message Lenine says:

"Owing to peculiar circumstances I am quite certain it would be a mistake for the Hungarian revolution to imitate our Russian tactics in detail. I must warn you against this mistake."

$75,000 FOR STOCK EXCHANGE SEAT

New York, March 27.—Transfer of a seat on the New York Stock Exchange for $75,000 was reported today the highest selling price in two years and $30,000 above the "low" for that period.

PREMIER HUGHES OPPOSED TO JAPS RACIAL EQUALITY

Would Strike Very Roots of Australian Policy

PARIS, March 27.—(By The Associated Press.)—William G. Hughes, the premier of Australia made the flat statement to The Associated Press today that he was unalterably opposed to the proposed Japanese racial covenant amenement to the covenant of the league of nations or to any form of it however, mild, in recognizing that principle.

"Australia," Mr. Hugres said, "cannot accept this proposal which strikes at the very roots of the policy that we have maintained so long, which is vital to our existence and which he have guarded as zealously as has America her Monroe Doctrine."

I am most anxious to avoid anything likely to hurt the susceptibilities of the people of other nations, but on this point since we cannot give way, it is best that I should speak plainly. We cannot agree to the insertion of any words in the covenant or in the treaty of peace that would impair, or even question, our sovereign rights in regard to and every aspect of this question.

"One of the cardinal principles of the league is that there shall be no interference in the international affairs of any nation. No nation will surrender its sovereignty in matters essential to its existence.

Will Not Agree to Dictation.

"If the league is able to compel a state to amend its immigration, naturalization and franchise laws there remains to the state only the shadow of sovereignty. The substance has gone. No free nation could agree to dictation in such matters from the league of nations. Intimate problems must remain under the control of individual nations. Of course we are told by those who advocate this amendment that nothing more is desired than the mere recognition of the principle. They say that no action is contemplated. I am afraid that this assurance will not reconcile the people of Australia to the proposal. It certainly does not satisfy me. The proposal means something, or nothing. If nothing then why insert it. If something, then surely this will not be achieved by mere words, stopping for all time short of action. If these words which it is desired to insert in the covenant mean nothing, then the covenant itself means nothing.

"But I hope and believe that the covenant, so far as it is or will be means extending the rule of law into the spheres of international dispute that it contemplates and provides for action, as do all other legal documents, municipal and international. Believing this I cannot accept the suggestion that the amendment proposed means nothing and differs in essence from the other provisions of the pact.

Matter Keenly Felt.

"The people of Australia feel very keenly on this matter. We feel I imagine as your people of California do. I do not pretend to know intimately the sentiment of America but my observations have led me to belief that the Pacific Coast would be as much opposed to this amendment as would the citizens of Australia.

"Without committing myself to the draft of the league of nations which of course has not yet been discussed by the conference and which I hope and believe will be amended in certain directions, I have no hesitation in declaring myself in favor of the attempt to substitute the rule of law and right for that of fence. I feel sure, however, that Australia could not sign the covenant if it contained any such amendment as it proposed. Words matter little. The amendment will be unacceptable no matter how drafted, for it strikes at the root of a policy vital to the existence and ideals of Australia."

CHARGED WITH MURDER.

Champaign, Ill., March 27.—Joseph Ptack and Lawrence Glone both of Chicago are in the county jail at Urbana, held for the murder of Ed Nofftz yesterday at his home southeast of Pesotum. They claim to be only 17 years old and have confessed to attacking the man but claim that they did not think the beating they gave him would be fatal.

The league of women voters which has been in session in St. Louis has started out the 1919 equal suffrage campaign in proper way. An over the top fund of $120,000 has been raised for financing the campaign. Raising a goodly fund sum seems to be the first item on the program for boosting every measure and movement these days.

FRATERNAL INSURANCE ADDS TO H. C. L.

The increase in rates for M. W. A. members was adopted without very extended discussion at the Chicago meeting. The loss figures were seemingly so alarming that the increase in rates was quickly approved. The reports of this great fraternal order show that enormous losses have accrued thru the flu epidemic, and there are further figures to indicate that before the epidemic time there had been a period when the death losses were exceeding the income from assessments. If fraternal insurance is to cost more, that idea is right in accord with the times, for every necessity and every luxury costs more than used to be the case.

MR. WILSON IS QUALIFIED.

The statement by President Remmelkamp concerning George H. Wilson which is printed elsewhere in this issue, mentions the promise that Mr Wilson gave even in his college days. He was the valedictorian of one of the strongest classes that the college has ever sent out, and the thirty years since his graduation have been years of achievement.

Mr. Wilson therefore at this time comes before the people of this judicial district as a man of strong character and with ripe experience in his profession and in public affairs. A member of the Adams county bar for twenty five years, he has had a practice which has taken him into all branches of the law. During more recent years he has spent part of his time in his work as a member of the Illinois legislature. His ability and earnestness of purpose are responsible for his prominence in the general assembly.

Mr. Wilson's election will reflect credit upon this community, for so many years his home, and will insure for membership in the supreme court a man fully qualified for the onerous duties of the bench—duties which will be of more moment in the coming months than has been true in the past.

BERNSTORFF PRAISES HOUSE.

When the report of the death of Colonel House reached Count Bernstorff a few weeks ago the former ambassador to the U. S. wrote a lengthy tribute to President Wilson's personal representative. He pictured the man who is "the eyes and ears" of the president as an able and remarkably modest American. The character summary is one of which Colonel House can well be proud but doubtless he would rather have had it come from some other source than the discredited former ambassador.

THE CLOCK HANDS WILL MOVE FORWARD

A lot of people are disappointed because the daylight saving act was not repealed by congress. The fact remains that the law is on the nation's statute books and that next Sunday the clocks must be moved forward an hour—that is, this course must be followed if one wants to keep in touch with official time. Last year there were many people who declined to make the clock change and the result was "old time" and "new time" with some resulting confusion. The daylight saving plan has questionable value except in large cities and industrial centers, but since it is the law those who do not follow simply inconvenience themselves.

BURLESON'S METHODS ANNOYING.

President Wilson has had several resignations from his cabinet in the past year and if Postmaster General Burleson were to retire now the administration would be considerably strengthened in the eyes of the people. The manner in which the postmaster general is mismanaging affairs of the telegraph and telephone companies is calling for merited criticism. His ousting of President Mackey of the Postal Telegraph Co. was a high-handed performance and has not been explained in a way satisfactory to the public. The fact that wire control, which was advocated as a war time measure, did not become a reality until after the war, lingers in the mind of the public.

Now Mr. Burleson has aligned the telephone and telegraph operators against him because of his opposition to their unions. Since his control of the wires is presumably for such a short period of time, it is really surprising that Mr. Burleson does not try to finish his term of service with greater credit to himself and the administration, and less disturbance to the owning companies and the public.

Educate, some statesmen or, observer has said, is the real cure for the Bolsheviki movement. That's very true, no doubt, just as education will settle Mexico's troubles and will solve other questions which long have been a menace to the peace and happiness of the world. The trouble is that it will take a generation or two to "educate" the Bolsheviki out of business and meanwhile there are too many tottering governments. There must be some strong arm methods along with the education.

MR. HUGHES IS ALWAY CLEAN.

Charles E. Hughes' analysis of the league of nations plan has the cleaness which always marks Mr. Hughes' public utterances. Aside from pointing out the defects in the "covenant" in the manner of some other critics of the plan, Mr. Hughes has talked in a constructive way. He has specified seven amendments which he says are needed, and he states these amendments and interprets their force and meaning. The wonder grows why President Wilson was unwilling to have leading Americans of the Root and Hughes type associated in the active work of the peace conference.

MANY FIELDS OF OPPORTUNITY

If the spirit which prevailed at the Grace council last night can continue, the community council program will be of great benefit to Jacksonville and Morgan county. The plan which has been mentioned before had the approval of the state council of defense and President Wilson referring to the plan, wrote: "Thru community councils the nation will be welded together as no nation of great size was ever welded before."

The danger which confronts the council from a local standpoint is in the multiplicity of purposes. If some plan is outlined and adopted whereby certain objectives are sought and reached, then the council will go on to further accomplishment. In these after the war days, with the various organizations which the war time produced ,it is easy to think of a multitude of things which might be helpful to men, women or children. There are big reform plans which thru their accomplishment would be well worth while. There are problems of health and sanitation, of education and entertainment, questions relating to soldiers, to parks and playgrounds, to better roads and still other questions related to social service—fine things, all of them, and well worthy of consideration.

But here's a guess that the community council which accomplishes the most will be the council which has in the beginning a somewhat limited list of objects and activities.

The "Laundress" Who Does Bed Linen So Exquisitely

Clean, crisp bed linens are so attractive and so conducive to healthful rest, but the average laundress does not relish the task of doing them. Besides the home laundry is not equipped to do them properly.

At a reasonable cost we will do your linens every week in our sunny workrooms. We have scientific equipment and methods for handling the finest pieces.

They are washed in clear, pure water and the mildest of soap chips. The water passes and repasses through the fabric. The result is complete cleanliness without injury to the goods. They are not rubbed on a rough wash board.

We do not iron linens with a heavy iron, but press them between the softly padded surfaces of a roller ironer. This gives a smooth velvety finish that is a delight to the eye.

We will demonstrate on your first bundle the superiority of modern methods over the best home work.

Rippling Rhymns

Winter's Backbone.

Let glad words be joyously spoken, let bonnets be thrown in the air; the backbone of winter is broken, it's fractured so none can repair. Farewell to the sleet and the drizzle, mild zephyrs will presently come; old winter's a frost and a fizzle, the limit of all that is bum. I see in the heavens a token that spring will be here with the goods; the backbone of winter is broken, the birdlets will sing in the woods. Farewell to the coughing and sneezing, to wintertime ailments all know, to nights that are age-long and freezing, to winds that are plastered with snow. I feared that an overcoat oaken would hold me ere winter was done; the backbone of winter is broken, make way for the soothing old sun! Make way for the roses and lilies, make way for the grass and the dew. From Hannibal clear to Hoboken let's lift up a rapturous song; the backbone of winter is broken, the backbone that hung on so long.

CONFERENCE MEETING WAS HELD THURSDAY

Much Enthusiasm Shown By Speakers at Grace Church Thursday Evening—Committee Named to Nominate and Report at a Meeting to be Held Next Friday.

The great war has taught many lessons and one is the value of co-operation. To this end there is a national movement in favor of community co-operation especially for child welfare and it is called the community center and for this purpose the national organization has selected five communities in the nation for an experiment and has honored Morgan county as one of them.

A meeting was held at Grace church last evening and after all had been put in the best of humor by a fine supper, Rev. M. L. Pontius took the chair. Of his remarks and all the others only a very brief outline is practicable.

During the great war we laid aside our religious, political and other divisions and wrought together and think of the grand results. It will be deplorable if we now go back to former conditions. In the enterprise in hand sectarianism, party politics and any divisive lines have no place; we must work together. We want a union of all churches, fraternal societies, clubs and organizations of any kind which may be useful.

Speakers Voice Co-operation

Other speakers during the evening voiced the sentiment of co-operation. Some of their thoughts are given:

John M. Butler: This is a grand movement and is a result of the great war which brought together so many people in a common cause. We need co-operation in all things and this movement promises great things if we will all work together with a will.

In this grand scheme all have an opportunity to work and we need the hearty co-operation of all sects, societies, organizations and individuals if we are to accomplish the end. We need a survey of health conditions; a detention place for young offenders, and many things that can be accomplished by this movement.

Mr. Pontius said a speaker of national reputation had been expected but failed to come. However we have here a person of international fame, Miss Olmsted. The lady spoke admirably.

A result of the war is better co-operation. The terrible "flu" has led us to seek the causes of such a calamity. There is a place in southern Iowa where they began in a small way and now have six counties in one organization and it is almost ideal. They have a hospital, a magnificant $100,000 plant, to which the sick are sent. If poor, some local body pays the bill.

They have a nurse's training school and if a nurse is needed for a long or short time in a family they send to the hospital and get one. Churches, societies, unions and many organizations work with the central body. Health is subserved and all kinds of means taken to teach the laws of hygiene. They have a welfare promotion department, a social committee and many arrangements for general service.

Ill Health Causes Crime

Crime is often the result of ill health; hence sound bodies are sought and built up. (The entire details told by the lady were so many they cannot be enumerated here). Now we want in rich Morgan county something of the same thing and the national organization has selected Morgan county as one of five localities for the experiment and it will help with means and advice as well as assistance by individuals. I want to see an active effort put forth here in this matter, and we must do our part.

We must do general health work; homes must be visited. Remember the whole child, soul, body, affections, all attend school or should do so and yet in Chapin where they have a school population of 225 but 135 are in attendance. What does this mean in such a fine community? Morgan county pays for schools, $294,243 annually. The janitors cost $10,000; libraries, $3,300; fuel thousands and other things in proportion, but for the promotion of health in the county, $18 in a year.

Last year 83 children, each less than five years old, died; of this number 55 were less than a year old and 15 less than ten days of age. You have a hospital here; why not turn that over to this work? There should be nurses to go to the sick for a longer or shorter time; experienced people will be brought here to give instruction if wanted and there should be a strong organization here working in hearty co-operation. Why should rich Morgan county or behind a small community in southern Iowa? I hope it will not be.

T... of Chicago Meeting

Mrs. T. H. Buckthorpe told of the great national meeting in Chicago which three ladies from Jacksonville attended. There are 8,350 members in this county. They were asked for a contribution of $1000 and with the chautauqua dining concession and other means had secured $828 and would have the rest. Great credit is due Mr. and Mrs. Muehlhausen of the West State street bakery for strenuous work in baking 5,700 cakes to be sold for the wrk.

Miss Dorsey, county chairman of child welfare, told graphically of the meeting, the inspiring addresses by state leaders. Gov. Lowden was kept away by illness but sent a message of hearty co-operation. She told of the five places selected by the national organization, this county being one. She and several others referred to the fact that last Sunday six boys from ten to twelve years of age and five of high school age had jumped a coal drag on the C. B. & Q. road and ridden to Concord where they were arrested, brought to Jacksonville and placed in jail over night and all deplored the stigma which must rest on those boys and how a detention home is called for.

Mrs. A. L. Adams told eloquently of the Chicago meeting of the state council of defense and the fine addresses made and the grand uplift it caused. Americanization was emphasized and every means that would uplift the community.

M. F. Dunlap was much in favor of the movement and hoped it would succeed for it was on the right basis. He mentioned the recent gathering to reduce and agree on prices of steel and said good men should be sent to the constitutional conven.

H. M. Capps spoke earnestly for the work.

John J. Reeve gave it his hearty indorsement and hoped it would succeed. He urged that this be the best of the five places named by the national association.

Hon. Thomas Worthington heartily favored the movement. We have had some in the past that have accomplished something but not enough. He told the need of a detention house and many things long age suggested. The curse of Morgan county is its love of the almighty dollar. We might have anything worth while if we were willing to pay what we can easily afford to pay.

Mr. Kendall, county farm adviser, spoke strongly in favor of the movement.

Supt. Perrin of the city schools expressed deep interest in the movement.

Hon. Andrew Russel said we should work together and we are responsible for the souls of the children. It was a shame that those boys Sunday were placed in jail.

Rev. Mr. Morphis made a strong plea for the admission of the Morgan County Poultry association in the general movement.

A nominating committee will be named to report at a mass meeting to be held next Friday evening.

The colored people of Jacksonville are especially invited to attend the mass meeting at the court house Saturday night. An army man from the overseas service will speak. Be sure to attend.

WESTERN ILLINOIS HIGH SCHOOL MEET

Principal Hopkins is making preliminary arrangements for the annual Western Illinois High School League athletic meet to be held on Illinois field Saturday, May 3.

Formerly the meet has been held on the first Friday in May but owing to the loss of so much time and the further fact that the Illinois Interscholastic meet is to be held the following Friday, it was thought best to hold this meet on Saturday.

Principal Hopkins will have charge of the track team and has the men already at work for the two events. About fifteen men have reported and it is hoped that more will respond as the weather grows warmer. The fact that the men will have to work in the morning will be a handicap in getting into shape for the meet.

RECEIVES DISCHARGE

A. F. DeFrates of Doolin avenue received word yesterday that his son, R. Edgar DeFrates, had received his discharge from the marines and was now in Chicago. Mr. DeFrates enlisted in the marines last May and has been stationed at Bar Harbor, Maine, doing guard duty. Prior to his enlistment he was located at Buffalo, N. Y., being sales manager for the Gerlach-Barlow company of Joliet, Ill. He will be city sales manager for the same company at Chicago temporarily.

WILL RESUME PRICE FIXING HEARINGS

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., March 27.—Members of the legislative committee investigating alleged price fixing by manufacturers of building materials left here late today to resume their hearing in Chicago tomorrow. Both houses adjourned for the week shortly before noon.

Unofficial advices from Washington that the war industries board and cement manufacturers had agreed on a reduction in the prices of cement, led to speculation on the part of the legislative investigators as to what effect the reported agreement would have on the state inquiry. While there was no announcement as to the nature of the price decrease it was believed to be not more than ten cents on the barrel. The best quotation the state has been able to get from retailers is said to be $1.80 or $1.85 a barrel.

In a report to the committee based on a private investigation Governor Lowden the present week told the members cement could be manufactured by the state at one dollar a barrel.

Governor Lowden late today signed the Jewel bill permitting the Chicago city council to file a supplemental budget. It passed the house this morning. Most of the legislators had left for their homes tonight to take part in the closing days of the election campaigns which will close next Tuesday.

REPORTS DENIED

New York, March 27.—Emphatic denial of reports that anti-saloon league of New York was planning an anti-tobacco campaign was made tonight by William H. Anderson, superintendent of the organization.

The Anti-Saloon League, said Mr. Anderson, has absolutely nothing to do with any such movement and has never contemplated any activity against tobacco.

TREASURY NOT CONSULTED ABOUT MEXICAN LOAN

Washington, March 27.—The treasury has not been consulted concerning a reported movement among bankers to organize a large loan to Mexico, it was learned today. Treasury officials doubted whether the department would look with favor on the negotiation of a large private loan to Mexico before the victory liberty loan is floated.

NEW ZEALAND MEAT BROUGHT TO U. S.

New York, March 27.—A carload of frozen lamb and mutton, one of several consigned to New York of a shipment from New Zealand from Vancouver has been placed on sale here. In wholesale lots the shipment is expected to sell several cents under American products.

Heretofore England has been the principal market for New Zealand lamb and mutton and this is the first shipment to this market.

Lodi, Wis., March 27.—A band of auto bandits early today dynamited the safe in the office of the W. W. Steeler Lumber Co., and escaped with several thousand dollars mostly in Liberty bonds. Blood hounds later trapped one of the band on the edge of town. None of the loot was recovered.

ADVERTISING AIDS IN CHURCH DRIVE

NEW YORK, March 27.—Newspaper advertising was given as one of the chief factors in the success of the Presbyterian Church drive for $40,000,000 for church work at home and overseas in a statement summarizing the results of the campaign, issued tonight by the Rev. Dr. Charles Stelzle publicity director.

Dr. Stelzle said indications are that the Presbyterian church has increased its benevolencies by fifty per cent over last year and it is expected that the figure will go to 100 per cent by the end of the year. Dr. Stelzle urged continued use of newspaper advertisement in the membership campaign which is to follow the fund drive.

"There is no agency," he asserted, "which can be made quite so effective as the daily newspaper in enlisting the interest of those who do not go to church."

"It already has an entree in the home of the peoples, it appears every day, the material it contains is discussed by everyone and worth while advertisements paid for by the church and proclaiming religion will be read by many millions who would never in the first instance go to a church to hear it discussed."

Mormons arriving here from the Mormon settlements today reorted Martin Lopez in Colonia Juarez, March 24, five days after the battle and said they had taken pictures of him. They said Lopez' secretary, who resembles Lopez very much and who had papers, personal property and other ossession of Lopez' in his possession was killed in the battle and that this probably lead to the mistake.

REVENUE RULINGS EXPLAINED IN DETAIL

Collector Pickering Calls Attention to Some Interesting Facts About Special Tax Stamps.

Springfield, Ill., March 27. — How many business men, taxi owners, boat owners and other persons in this county are liable to penalties under internal revenue laws?

Collector of Internal Revenue J. L. Pickering announced today that hundreds of taxpayers who in 1918 purchased special tax stamps (Government Licenses) at old rates must immediately pay additional taxes due under the Revenue Act of February 24, 1919, for the six months period commencing with January 1 and ending with June 30, 1919. Collector Pickering has mailed to all special taxpayers on his list a notice of the additional amount due with instructions to return the notice with remittance to him without delay in order to avoid penalties.

The present revenue act not only increases the rates for several kinds of businesses but others have been added to the list, and some of the provisions as to liability have been materially changed.

Liability of brokers for special tax materially changed: Under the revenue acts heretofore in effect prior to the passage of the act of 1918, every person, firm, or corporation whose business it was to negotiate purchases or sales of stocks, bonds, exchange, bullion, coined money, bank notes, promissory notes, or other securities, for others, were regarded as brokers and required to pay special tax as such. Under the new revenue law, every person, firm or corporation whose business it is to negotiate purchases or sales of produce or merchandise for others are also regarded as brokers and are taxed $50 per annum instead of $20. In addition to the increased special tax, brokers who are members of a stock or produce exchange, board of trade, etc., where stocks, produce, or merchandise is sold, shall pay an additional amount.

Collector Pickering stated that a number of brokers, who under the old act were exempt, will be required under the new law to qualify and pay the tax immediately or penalties will be imposed.

Old special taxes, the rates which have been increased but the requirements are practically the same as heretofore are listed as follows:

Pawnbrokers—The rate is $100 instead of $50.

Proprietors of circuses shall pay $100. No change.

Public Exhibitions — Proprietors or agents of all other public exhibitions or shows for money not otherwise enumerated, shall pay $15 instead of $10. An aggregation of entertainments known as a street fair shill not pay larger tax than $100, regardless of the number of shows. This special tax does not apply to chautauquas, lecture courses, lyceums, agricultural or industrial fairs, or exhibitions held under the auspices of religious or charitable associations. The special tax stamp is good only in the state or territory where purchased, and is not transferable from one state or territory to another.

Proprietors of bowling alleys and billiard rooms shall pay $10 instead of $5 for each alley or table.

The rate of special tax as proprietor of theaters, museums and concert halls, has been doubled, and the provision has been retained in the new law providing that in cities, towns or villages of 5,000 inhabitants or less, the tax shall be one-half of that imposed in towns of over 5,000. If any edifice is under lease at the time the tax is due, the tax shall be paid by the lessee, unless otherwise stipulated between the parties to the lease. Edifices owned by religious, educational, or charitable organizations where all the proceeds from admissions insure exclusively to the benefit of such organizations or exclusively to the benefit of persons in the military or naval forces of the United States, are not subject to special tax; neither are halls or armories if not more than two taxable entertainments are given therein during any one month.

Boats—Owners of yachts, pleasure boats, motor boats with fixed engines, and sailing boats are required under the new law to pay the difference between the rate of tax imposed under the old law and that imposed under the new within sixty days after the passage of the act. An application must be filed by all such taxpayers by April 29, and the additional tax remitted. Exemption: Boats used exclusively for trade, fishing, or national defense, or built according to plans approved by the navy department. The collector will mail blank applications to all boat owners who paid tax under the old law in ample time for them to make return before April 29.—All taxpayers who fail to receive these blank applications should apply for same.

New Special Taxes

Shooting Galleries—Proprittors of shooting galleries shall pay $20. Every building, space, tent or area, where a charge is made for the discharge of fire arms at any form of target shall be regarded as a shooting gallery.

Riding Academies—Proprietors of riding academies shall pay $100. Every building, space, tent or area, where a charge is made for instruction in horsemanship, or for facilities for the practice of horsemanship, shall be regarded as a riding academy.

Passenger Automobiles — Persons carrying on the business of operating or renting passenger automobiles for hire shall pay $10 per annum for each automobile seating more than two and not more than seven, and $20 per annum for each automobile seating more than seven.

Collector Pickering stated today that persons liable for these new taxes must immediately apply for blank applications on which to make return and remit the taxes due for the six months period commencing January 1 and ending June 30, 1919.

He stated that there probably would be very few, if any, riding academies subject to tax in this district, but that there were a large number of proprietors of shooting galleries and that there were several hundreds of persons in his district who make it a business of operating passenger automobiles for hire and must pay the taxes imposed.

It will be impossible to mail blank applications to new taxpayers, as their names are not on the collector's list. It is expected that there will be a large number liable under the act of 1918 who will neglect to register and pay the amounts due. For this reason, they will have to suffer the penalties imposed for the delinquency unless they apply to the collector for blank applications.

There will be no tax stamps issued to special taxpayers, but instead, a receipt will be forwarded to each one paying the tax, which must be posted conspicuously.

IMPRESSIVE RITES FOR MISS STELLA COLE

Large Gathering at Funeral Services in Honor of Deceased Member of Illinois College Faculty.

It was fitting indeed that funeral services in memory of Miss Stella L. Cole should be held in the chapel at Illinois college, the institution where she gave sixteen of the best years of her life to thoro, conscientious educational work. The large assemblage included not only the faculty and student body of the college, but many friends of the Cole family. Rev. F. B. Madden, pastor of Grace church, was in charge of the services.

A tribute to the deceased instructor was given by Dr. C. H. Rammelkamp, president of Illinois college, and Dr. F. S. Hayden, dean of the faculty, offered a prayer. Mrs. Helen Ayers Bullard was at the organ and played a funeral march at the beginning of the service and a hymn at the close. From the Jones Memorial building the cortege moved to Diamond Grove cemetery, where Rev. Mr. Madden read the committal service and Miss Cole was laid to rest. There were many floral emblems sent by sympathizing friends, and these were in charge of Mrs. Frank J. Heinl, Mrs. Louise B. Inglis, Mrs. Vorce Bassett, Misses Kate Babb, Jeanette Russell, Florence Ward, Rose Bellatti and Betty Ames.

The honorary bearers were Thomas Worthington, Frank J. Heinl, Dr. David W. Reid, and Dr. E. F. Baker. The active bearers were James W. Elliott, Carl E. Robinson, Hugh Green, Vorce Bassett, Dean Cochran and Ralph Baker.

Rev. Mr. Madden read the 121st Psalm, a part of the 14th chapter of John and some other Scripture passages.

Immortality Certain

The minister then read the well known verses of Dr. Henry Van Dyke, beginning with "Let me live my life," and he commented upon the fact that it was significant that Dr. Van Dyke and Dr. Babcock in their special verses dealing with immortality, emphasized the thought that the promised "rest" is the best thing of all.

"To all students," Dr. Madden said, "immortality is an academic question until we come to a time like this. In these recent months the millions of graves of fallen soldiers and of those who died from plague or pestilence make immortality the burning question of the hour. The great mind and great heart of man thru all the ages has been assured of immortality and we find that Socrates, Euryipides and Cicero, and then in more modern days, Victor Hugo, Milton, Gladstone, Tennyson were men all sure that the soul is immortal. So Christ said 'With the heart man believeth unto righteousness.' The heart hath reasons that reason cannot understand. The poets have been the prophets of the heart and they all touch on immortality.

"Tennyson pondered on the thought, 'If a man die shall he live again," and in time his heart responded to the truth. It was so with Whittier, and it was Emerson—perhaps our greatest of philosophers—who said that 'what is best is immortal; the heart is dust but heart love survives, love will meet again,' and in this hour of sadness the thought of the scholars, the poets, the philosophers, that heart love survives and love will meet again comes to us with comforting assurance."

President C. H. Rammelkamp then paid a tribute to Miss Cole's life and work, speaking with evident feeling for he had known Miss Cole as a member of the faculty during all her years of connection with the institution. Dr. Rammelkamp said:

My friends: We have met this afternoon in this place of high privilege and sacred memories to pay a tribute to one who was for sixteen years a member of our college family. We are glad that those who call her daughter and sister are willing to tarry for a moment with us who knew her as our colleague, teacher and friend. Altho our grief possibly cannot be so deep as that of a mother and brother, it is nevertheless a grief that has gone to the very roots of cur being and that now unites us with this bereaved family in a bond of heartaching sympathy. It seems difficult to understand why one so full of promise, in the prime of her life, performing a great service for a host of young people, a dutiful, strong, affectionate daughter should be taken and taken so suddenly. The way of the Almighty are often inscrutable and it is sometimes difficult for us finite beings to understand His infinite wisdom and plan. We can only exclaim with the poet:

"Strong Son of God, immortal Love,
Whom we, that have not seen thy face,
By faith, and faith alone, embrace,
Believing where we cannot prove;

Thine are these orbs of light and shade;
Thou madest life in man and brute;
Thou madest death; and lo, thy foot
Is on the skull which thou hast made.

Thou wilt not leave us in the dust;
Thou madest man, he knows not why,
He thinks he was not made to die;
And thou hast made him; thou art just."

Some Life Facts.

Stella Lenore Cole was born in the vicinity of Jacksonville, and after an elementary education in the public schools of our city, she became a student in the Jacksonville Female Academy in the days when Professor Bullard was head of the school. She pursued her collegiate education at the University of Indiana and the University of Chicago, and then supplemented her training at these two well known institutions by further training abroad in the universities of Munich and Berlin and the schools of Paris. After such a thorough training and broad preparation she taught first in the Indianapolis high school and then on the faculty of the Jacksonville Female Academy, or as she usually preferred to call it, The Academy for Yuong Women. It was in 1903 that Miss Cole became a member of the faculty of Illinois College as instructor in French and German; in a few years she was made assistant professor, and a little later became a full professor in charge of the department of modern languages. It ought also be recorded in this brief statement of her career that she was a member of Sorosis and of the local chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution.

The qualities that characterized Miss Cole as a scholar, a teacher and a woman are well known to all of her friends. Stella Cole did not belong to that class of neutral and negative people who make no impression upon those with whom they come in contact, but her character and personality were positive.

Miss Cole was a scholar of real distinction. She may not have published much, but she had in her those qualities that distinguished the real scholar. She had mastered her subject, she understood its relations to other subjects, and she had a love of learning. I don't know what the dictionary definition of a scholar may be, but in my opinion a person who has mastered a certain branch of knowledge, who comprehends its relation to the general field of human knowledge, and in addition has a contagious enthusiasm for learning is a scholar. Measured by that test Miss Cole was not only one of the best scholars on our faculty but one of the outstanding scholars, among either men or women, in our city. I have not had an opportunity to talk with the members of Sorosis, but I feel sure that her fellow members in that organization will with me pay this high tribute to her scholarship.

Teacher and Scholar.

Miss Cole was a great teacher. Good scholars are not by any means always good teachers. Indeed some people might be inclined to say that great scholars are usually not good teachers. In my own wanderings in universities at home and abroad, I have certainly met many men who would have accomplished much more for civilization and learning if they had never attempted to teach. Whatever the general tendency may be, there is no doubt that our friend was a great teacher as well as a superior scholar.

A good teacher is one who can make her students see what she sees, and who can inspire them with a love of learning. How often have I heard students express their admiration of this teacher of modern languages. Some college instructors are popular with their students because their courses are a pleasant and easy diversion. That was not the case with Miss Cole. She was popular with her classes in spite of the fact that she was one of the most exacting instructors on our faculty. I have talked with many students who failed in their French or German, but I cannot at this time recall one who blamed the instructor.

Miss Cole was a woman of independent judgment. I said a moment ago that her personality was positive and not negative. She did not by any means always agree with her colleagues or the president of the college. Sometimes there were sharp differences of opinion and clashes of judgment that made the sparks fly. But her opinions were always stimulating and helpful to the cause of learning on this campus. More than once it was this keen, independent professor of modern languages who woke up a dozing faculty to its educational responsibilities.

It is hardly necessary to add that Miss Cole was a woman of strong moral character. You may be sure that no person of weak character could have made such a lasting impression upon these generations of students that have passed through her classes. Young people are quick to scent insincerity. The students and alumni of this last decade and a half would not have paid the homage which they so graciously and sincerely gave to this woman, if they did not recognize her as a person of noble character.

Influence Will Live.

Our friend is gone. This campus where she came daily for these many years will no longer know her bodily presence, but the influence of Professor Cole will abide in Illinois College. Her many friends among the alumni whose lives she influenced will never forget her and her example, her ideals of scholarship, teaching and character will ever inspire us who yet remain to carry forward the great cause of learning.

Dr. F. S. Hayden then offered an earnest prayer concluding with these words: "And we pray Thee, Oh God, who dost lead us out from this short and busy and finite life, into the larger, richer life, that there she may have the full satisfaction for all her great and present desires for knowledge; that there she may find the complete fulfillment of her life in Thy presence, and that there she may find an ennobling and the adequate employment of all her powers in the wide space of eternity. And we pray Thee, Oh God, that in this place where she has labored and loved there may be found continually flowing and free the influences that come from fidelity to duty, arduousness to toil, and devoted sacrifice unto the chosen lot of life. And we ask all these things in the name of Jesus Christ, the author of our hope and the founder of our faith. Amen."

When the casket was conveyed from the residence to Jones Memorial building students of the college served as a guard of honor, and these same young men stood beside the chapel entrance as the casket was borne away to the final resting place at Diamond Grove. Before the formal service began the casket was opened in the chapel room and members of the faculty and student body had the opportunity of a last look upon one with whom for many of them there had been intimate associations thru the years. The floral offerings were especially beautiful.

COLLEGE INTERESTED IN GEORGE H. WILSON

Supreme Court Candidate when Student on the Hill Graduated With Highest Honors—Classmates Have Won Distinction.

Since George H. Wilson, candidate for the nomination for the supreme bench, is a graduate of Illinois College and was for some time a member of the board of trustees, it is quite natural that there is more than the usual interest in the college circle in his candidacy. President C. H. Rammelkamp was yesterday asked something about Mr. Wilson's connection with the college. President Rammelkamp said:

"George H. Wilson was a student in Illinois College in the days when the late Dr. Edward A Tanner was president of the institution. Mr. Wilson belonged to the class of '88, which included among its members some men who like Mr. Wilson have achieved considerable success, among them being Dr. Joseph R. Harker, president of the Illinois Woman's College, the Honorable John E. Kehoe, a prominent attorney of Chicago, Professor William E. McElfresh of the faculty of Williams College, Massachusetts, Professor A. E. Day, for many years on the faculty of the Syrian College at Beirut, and Dr. Allan A. Tanner, a Congregational pastor of some prominence.

"That Mr. Wilson was able to lead such a class as its valedictorian is sufficient evidence of his ability as a student. It may be of interest also to add that he was associated in the class immediately preceding his own with such boys as Edward Capps now chairman of the Red Cross commission to Greece and the Reverend Thomas W. Smith a leader in the army Y work overseas.

George, as his fellow students liked to call him has always continued to show a warm interest in his Alma Mater, serving for a term or two as alumni trustee. He always attends his class reunions and all important college celebrations; in fact, he is often in demand as a speaker on these occasions.

"If Mr. Wilson is elected to the supreme bench of the state, he will be the second alumnus of the college to occupy that exalted position, the late Honorable J. N. Carter '66 having preceded him.

DEATH COMES TO MRS. M. R. CRABTREE

Pneumonia Caused Death of Mrs. M. R. Crabtree at Home in Springfield, Mo. — Deceased Was Well Known in This City.

E. E. Crabtree left on an early train Thursday morning for Springfield, Mo., having been summoned there by a telegram announcing the death of his sister-in-law, Mrs. M. R. Crabtree. For a number of days past Mrs. Crabtree has been ill with pneumonia. The disease was in a malignant form, so for at least 48 hours prior to her death immediate relatives knew that there was little or no hope of her recovery.

Mrs. Crabtree prior to her marriage was Miss Maude Means, the family home having been in Springfield for many years. The deceased had several times been a visitor in Jacksonville and people here found her a very attractive woman. In her home city she was a member of the Methodist church and was active there in several lines of philanthropic work. Mrs. Crabtree's years were usefully spent and she was a young woman of strong character and charming personality. She is survived by her husband, her mother, one brother and one sister.

Mrs. James Crabtree, mother of M. R. Crabtree, had reached Springfield from Lawton, Okla., prior to the death of her daughter-in-law. Mrs. E. E. Crabtree, who has been in New Orleans, is now on the way to Springfield. The arrangements for the funeral have not yet been completed.

COMMISSION STUDIES M. E. COLLEGE NEEDS

Recommendation Made For Additional Funds For Woman's College Report By Dr. Harker Shows Need.

An Educational Commision was recently appointed by the Illinois conference to study and report on the collegiate standing and needs of the Methodist College of Illinois.

This commission consisted of twenty-eight men with Bishop Thomas Nicholson of Chicago, as chairman The members were leading ministers and laymen representing the conference and colleges, together with prominent educators selected from the entire country. Among these were: President James of the University of Illinois, Hon. F. G. Blair, State Superintendent of Public Instruction in Illinois, President L. H. Hurlin, of Boston University, President Plantz, of Lawrence College, Wisconsin, Dr. A. W. Harris, Secretary of the Board of Education of the Methodist church, Dr. John W. Hancher Associate Secretary of the same Board, and President McMasters, of Mt. Union-Scio College in Ohio.

The commission has made the following report as to the Illinois Woman's College at Jacksonville.

"The presentation of the trustees of Illinois Woman's College thru President Harker is commendable and adequate in form. The statement of needs and askings is approved, and it is the judgment of the commission that, the college should ask from its friends at least an additional $250,000 for new buildings and equipment, and an additional $1,000,000 for endowment.

The commission also suggested that, pending the securing of the added endowment, there should be a sustentation fund provided each year by solicitation of friends in the conferences and elsewhere and that it is reasonable to expect that a good proportion of the additional endowment and of the annual sustaining fund in the meanwhile, should come from Jacksonville and county in which the college is located, as other local communities are doing for their colleges.

The budget of the college shows that this sustentation fund should be at least $10,000 a year, to meet necessary current expenses, and especially to enable the trustees to increase the salaries of the teachers. The trustees are already doing as much as they can in these directions, but are greatly hindered by inadequate endownment.

They must continue to appeal to the generosity of friends, and hope there will be a liberal response. Gifts may and should be designated, whether for endowment, for general current expense, or for addition to the salaries of the teachers, and the wishes of the donors will be carefully complied with.

Jacksonville Council No. 5, R. & S. M., will hold a stated assembly tonight. Work. Refreshments.

MISS NELLE ROBERTSON DIES IN FRANCE

J. T. Robertson of Virginia Advised of Death of Daughter in Marseilles, France—Was Engaged in Canteen Work in French City.

Many Jacksonville people heard with genuine sorrow of the death of Miss Nelle Robertson of Virginia, in Marseilles, France, as a result of typhoid fever. A cablegram brought this sad news to her father, J. T. Robertson, of Virginia Thursday. The message came from Lieut. George C. Lenington, a former pastor of the Presbyterian church in Virginia and now serving as chaplain with the American army of occupation.

Miss Robertson during the war period was active in various patriotic efforts and a few months ago was accepted for service overseas and assigned to canteen service in Marseilles. Recently she contracted the fever and her condition grew rapidly worse until the end came. Miss Robertson was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Robertson of Virginia and was born there Feb. 27, 1877. She attended the public schools of Virginia and afterward was a student at a Jacksonville college, later going to La-Salle seminary at Auburndale, Mass. After finishing her own education Miss Robertson engaged for a number of years in teaching.

Letters written to her family from France were of an enthusiastic kind and indicated her strong interest in the work in which she was engaged. The last letter from her was written under date of Feb. 20. Those who knew Miss Robertson could not fail to appreciate her worth. She lived unselfishly and was genuinely interested in her relatives and friends.

She leaves her father, J. T. Robertson of Virginia; three brothers and two sisters: Richard Robertson, living in Nebraska; Virgil E. Robertson of Virginia; E. M. Robertson of Decatur; Mrs. T. G. Charles of Beardstown; and Mrs. R. H. Campbell of Virginia. Mrs. John Robertson of West Lafayette avenue is a grandmother of the deceased and John R. Robertson her uncle.

ROBERT REID GIVES PICTURE OF FRANCE

Jacksonville Soldier in Aviatino Corps Writes of Picturesque Scenes and Events.

The following are some extracts from a recent letter received by Dr. and Mrs. David Reid from their son Robert who is in the aviation corps stationed near Chaumont, perhaps the most picturesque portion of France as it slopes up in broken ridges and foot hills toward the Vosges and Alps Mountains

Dear Father and Mother:

So many letters have come lately that I must answer some of them or hire a secretary; but secretaries are expensive so here goes:

A few days ago I went to Columbia la Belle about 75 kilometers (45 miles) from here in a three-ton Liberty truck. Such trips are by the courtesy of the truck driver, and I drove a good part of the way. We left here about 1:30. Had supper there and got back about 11 p. m. It was a pretty cold trip tho I put on nearly everything I had—sweater, blouse, leather vest, overcoat and raincoat. It sounds ridiculous for weather above freezing, but sitting still in a damp rainy atmosphere for four hours, facing a brisk wind and going at a 24 kilo gait chills one.

The roads are of crushed rock. Every where there are piles of crushed rock along the road for repairs. The roads are hard, but sometimes rough, reminding one of East State street in Jacksonville. To get rock here, you have only to dig down a foot or two any where and you strike a rock quarry.

We see many spots of historic interest on these trips. Near Neufchateau the road runs across the river on a high bridge. To the left of the road a couple of kilos away there was a high narrow ridge or bluff ran out toward the river on both sides. On this side of the river a castle stood out like a wart on the end of a man's nose, on the very point of the ridge. From there one must be able to see ten kilos or more in every direction. I could still see the castle after about five kilos. This can readily be seen as the ridge stood out over the river perhaps 400 feet. The view from the castle must have been truly inspiring. This castle was owned at one time by the Duke of Alsace and Lorraine and has underground passages all through the ridge back of it. Once cut, it would always remain as it would be in solid rock. Then across the river, about a kilo away nestling up against the bluff opposite like a sleepy child on its mother's lap, was one of the tiny little villages with its red tile roofs and the inevitable church spire. Up on the hill a little higher and somewhat apart and less important looking was a church, looking no different in outward aspect from others, but boasting it seemed to me of its great history, for it was there, they tell me, Joan of Arc received her inspiration. In the cillage was where she was born. Of course I cannot swear to the facts, but I repeat them as told to me.

There are many tiny villages or groups of houses in France, every four or five kilometers—closer if on a river, but almost no separate farm houses. The pussy-willows are out and the wheat up about an inch and looking green about the rocky red clay. The peasants are plowing now. The plows are lighter than those used at home and are carried between two wheels like a cultivator. The soil as far as I have seen seems rock and hills everywhere. I do not remember of any level spot the size of an acre or two. They ploy about three inches deep and every which way.

Yesterday afternoon we went forty kilos toward Paris to Bar sur Auf to take a part of a big hangar which they were going to put up there for a horseshow. It sleeted within five minutes after starting, the wind driving it with cutting force against our faces. Then it rained some and snowed a little. Pretty cool trip but I got warmed up some while I drove the truck till the driver got cold and kicked me out of his seat. We got back about eight o'clock.

In the letters I get from home time and again is mentioned the fact that you are doubtful as to whether I have moved again and if I have started home, etc. Well, just let this get into your head and percolate—I feel as permanent in this camp as does any French peasant in his own home where he lives in the same stone-combination stable and house where his grand father was born. "Compre"?

Your Son,
Robert.

ACROSS THE COUNTRY TRAVELERS.

A bronzed and healthy looking pair drove into the city in a Buick roadster, bought some supplies and set sail for the capital of the state. They were Mr. and Mrs. Edward B. Green Jr., of Buffalo, New York. Last fall they motored out to California and are now on their way back. They had an abundance of equipage on their car and said they camped as they went. They said they found the worst roads in Illinois tho they had made good time. They had a small dog along and that was all in addition to their outfit. They were pleasant people and seemed to be enjoying their journey.

HEALTH CRUSADERS MAKE GOOD PROGRESS

Report on Sixth Week's Work Is Particularly Splendid—Copies to Be Distributed Thruout State.

The report on the sixth week's health work in the Jacksonville schools is paricularly splendid. It shows that no group of children is satisfied with doing just enougn health chores to earn titles and pins. If a child performs eight chores out of the ten or eleven listed for each day, he will receive the titles and pins. It is noteworthy that every school in Jacksonville reports an average performance of chores above nine per day per child—one of these schools reports ten per day and two report above ten.

The Franklin school should be congratulated all over again on last week's Squire report. It transpires that every person in the Franklin school was 100 per cent Squires, whereas one room was reported 94 per cent because two boys had lost their chore records. But the records were afterward found. Special mention should also be made of the fact that the fifth grade at the Jefferson school, Miss Yeck teacher, was 100 per cent Squires and the second grade at the same school, Miss Bentley teacher, should have been reported 100 per cent Squires.

Mr. W. D. Thurber, Executive Secretary of the Illinois Tuberculosis Association, was so pleased with the Jacksonville Squire report that he has sent a special request to the secretary of the Morgan County Anti-Tuberculosis League for sixty copies of this report, to be distributed thruout the state to Crusader Executives. Mr. Thurber visited the Josephine Milligan school when in Jacksonville recently and has asked Miss Hammond to send him an article about the health work in her school, with two photographs of the children, and has asked Miss Ryman for an article on her part of the work there, for The Arrow, a monthly magazine published by the Illinois Tuberculosis Association, with Mr. Thurber editor-in-chief.

The following report on the sixth week's work in the Jacksonville school is based on the average number of health chores performed per day per child.

MINUTE OF THE FACULTY ON OCCASION OF THE DEATH OF MISS COLE

The Faculty of Illinois College is moved to express its appreciation of the loss which the institution has sustained in the death on March twenty fifth of Miss Stella Leonore Cole, late head of he Modern Language Department, and for over fifteen years instructor in the German language and literature.

The value of Miss Cole's contribution to the mainttnance of high standards of education in the College is particularly emphasized and most gratefully acknowledged. The thoroughness of her methods and exactitude of her requirements in her instruction were matters for emulation.

Her intimate acquaintance with the intricacies of her chosen subject; her mastery of its varied contributions, ancient and modern, to the thought of the world; her warm love for the [illegible] of its literature, and a special aptitude for inspiring enthusiasm in her pupils made her class sessions unusually attractive and informing to ambitious students.

Altogether, her gifts as a teacher were very rare. Her pupils will remember her with gratitude and many of them with warm affection, for she possessed the happy faculty of establishing personal relations with a great number of them.

In the general counsels of the faculty Miss Cole's suggestions were of great value. Her alertness of mind, her wide general information, her sense of administrative efficiency, her experience and participation in the later development of the college curriculum gave weight to her opinion.

We cannot, therefore, help feeling that the cause of sound learning has lost a bright example, and a vigorous champion in the death of Miss Cole, and that our own loss is correspondingly severe.

Thursday, March 27, 1919.

To the family of our honored colleague we extend our heartfelt sympathy in their personal bereavement.

Time Brings Happiness With The Dawn

The Coming of Baby Marks the Advent of a Glorious Future.

Scientists say great stress should be laid upon the remarkable influence which the mother's happy pre-natal disposition has upon the health and future of the generations to come.

There is a splendid preparation women for over half a century have applied before the stork's arrival, known as Mother's Friend. This is a most grateful, penetrating remedy that at once softens and soothes the myriad of broad, flat abdominal muscles under the skin of the abdomen. By its regular use during the period the nerves, tendons and cords are relaxed and there is an absence of nausea, bearing-down pains, strain and general discomfort more often than otherwise experienced when nature is unaided.

By the use of Mother's Friend night and morning the muscles relax with ease when baby comes, the time of the crisis is shortened, pain and danger is naturally avoided. Write the Bradfield Regulator Company, B, Lamar Building, Atlanta, Georgia, for their Motherhood Book, and obtain a bottle of Mother's Friend from the druggist nearest, and get into condition to meet

Cleanse the blood, bowels and liver with Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the successful substitute for calomel; there's no sickness or pain after taking them.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do that which calomel does, and just as effectively, but their action is gentle and safe instead of severe and irritating.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil; you will know them by their olive color.

CONGRESSMAN RAINEY TO TALK AT WHITE HALL

Will Deliver Address at Memorial Tree Planting—Tribute to Soldier's Mother—Other News.

White Hall, March 26.—Congressman Henry T. Rainey will be the speaker at the memorial tree planting on Thursday afternoon of next week. The exercises will be held in Whiteside Park commencing at 1:30 p. m., following which the six hard maples will be planted on the soldiers' monument grounds in memory of the White Hall soldiers who died while in the service in the world war. Business houses will be requested to close during the afternoon. Details of the observance will be arranged at a meeting to be held in the library Thursday afternoon. Nice weather will insure an important occasion.

Tribute to Soldier's Mother

A tribute to the memory of Mrs. Mame Lyons, who died last week, comes from the impressive pen of W. G. Ebey or Hamlet, N. C., who writes the correspondent as follows under date of March 23rd: "Sorry indeed to learn of Mame Lyons' passing to the other side. She was a real woman of the old school — frank and outspoken, clean cut, fair with the masses. I love the middle class, first, because I was reared among them; second, because they are what they are—not ashamed of work, pay their debts, and have no society ideals to nurse and worship. God bless her; I know she's in heaven, and I'll meet her face to face in that golden sometime. Had you wired me I surely would have wired for the flowers to be piled on her old remains, but I'll be out there in the June time to leave some roses on mother's mound, and I'll double the load and leave an armful on Mame Lyons' six feet of mud." Mrs. Lyons lost a son in the service in France, and another son is yet over there, not knowing of the passing of his mother.

Raines Hears from Foreign Fields

Rev. J. O. Raines, secretary of the Baptist Missionary Convention of Illinois, supporting missions in Syria, Persia and Galilee, has restored communication with the missions in these fields. A letter from Rev. S. Mosa of Nazareth, Galilee, dated October 30, has reached the office of Secretary Raines, which says. "I am longing to hear from you, and to know all about the brethren in Illinois. Long before the war The Illinois Baptist stopped its visits, but last week I received a copy of the Baptist Standard of Texas that made tears of joy flow from my eyes to learn that most of the brethren I know are still alive and well. I hope you have already written me in detail. The work here is going on all right, though we have many obstacles and entanglements. We have entered a new era, therefore we should advance with the progress of the country. Most of the people have been hurt not only from the war, but in the spring of 1917 there came locusts upon the land and covered the country, eating everything green from these beautiful hills of Galilee. Besides, we have had to contend with the despotism of the Turks. We ought to help the poor with something, for how can we preach to them, seeing their miserable condition, and not help them?"

The following information has been received from the American consul at Kazvin, Persia: "The Rev. John Isaac died on the road during the Christian exodus from Urmia in August. I have recently seen his widow at Hamadan, where many of the refugees from Urmia are gathered. She stated to me that she was in very straitened circumstances, as they were compelled to leave all they possessed on departure from their home in Urmia." The last letter from Rev. Isaac received at missionary headquarters at White Hall was late in 1917, and remittances for the support of him and his mission have been sent thru the state department at Washington, the last of which, aggregating $1,125, was paid to Rev. Isaac on May 10, 1918, by the American consul at Tabriz, Persia.

Messrs. C. B. Stahl, T. M. English and H. W. Galhuly have returned from the convention of stoneware manufacturers at Zanesville, Ohio, which was held on two days last week. At a banquet held on Wednesday it is estimated that 95 per cent of the stoneware manufacturers of the United States were represented, and this function was addressed by Mr. Stahl, secretary and treasurer of the White Hall Sewer Pipe & Stoneware Co. On Thursday the plants at Zanesville, Roseville and Crooksville were visited, there being fifteen or twenty such plants at these places. The occasion was a joint meeting of eastern and western stoneware manufacturers, at the invitation of the easteners, and it is reasonable to assume that the western manufacturers will extend a return invitation next year.

Charles M. Slaymaker and B. H. Piepmeier, representing the Illinois department of highways, were here this week on business pertaining to road construction.

REV. J. L. CHRISTIAN WRITES FROM CHINA

Sends Intresting Letter to Congregational Church Here.

The following extracts are from a missive sent the Congregational church by its Missionary Pastor, Rev. J. L. Christian:

Foochow, China,
January 13, 1919.

Dear Friends:

The longer one is in the field the greater the number of interests becomes. In our first years we had the one sunday school and kindergarten to plan for but now Mrs. Christian has three fine kindergartens to look after and another Sunday school has started in which I share a part of my Sunday afternoons. With all these youngsters on our hearts you can imagine how happy we were when three parcels arrived from Jacksonville. I want to say for the benefit of those who did the packing of the gifts, they certainly knew how to do up parcels. The selection was fine and every gift fitted in nicely, and nearly 200 little hearts have been made happy here.

Mrs. Christian and I attended our three large Sunday schools Christmas festivities and I can assure you we saw three happy groups of children. Some of these have caught the spirit of giving and have made nice gifts with their own little hands; gifts for their mothers, sisters and brothers. They learned this love for others from their friends far across the seas in Jacksonville.

We have about 200 children to provide for at Christmas time beside our own Water Gate and Tartar quarter kindergartens. Yet there are many more whom we see in the streets and whom we long to benefit if we could. The playground has won many of these urchins and it daily becomes more popular. The kindergarten Christmas festivities were attended by over 300 friends, neighbors and and friends of the children, and Mrs. Christian put the whole in the management of the Chinese.

The hospital Sunday school festivities were held later and tho the hour was set for four some of the children and their friends were there all the afternoon. The chapel was packed with an orderly company of children and their friends waiting for the program to begin. There was a Christmas tree and a nice program and all were delighted while those who had been pupils long enough received presents and all had refreshments of Chinese cakes.

A neighborhood Sunday school is wholly managed by boys of the higher primary school and they had Christmas exercises in the church on the Sunday following Christmas. Many of the boys are wage earners but make a special effort to be present when something of interest is going on. The program was good and each received a remembrance and simple refreshments. The members of this "ragged Sunday school" took a collection to buy Christmas gifts for the blind school at the north gate and teachers of the higher primary school gave the refreshments.

At the close of the Christmas festivities we held the New Year reception in our home entertaining 160 or more. The students came in a body announcing their arrival with firecrackers. After music the students went to visit other foreign homes in the mission compound, each taking away his refreshments in a small, red trimmed basket. Following this came the week of prayer and the uniform examinations.

Last year we had the joy of seeing a good number of the students unite with the church and this year prospects are good. It is a joy to work with them and see their splendid development. Many of our beginners have never heard of Christ and all are willing learners.

I shall not try to describe our victory celebration for it is insignificant beside the festivities across the seas but we are grateful for peace and pray that there may never be another such war.

In closing let me thank you for the gifts to the work and for the packages marked "Mr. and Mrs. Christian," which we greatly enjoyed. Thanks also for two copies of the Jacksonville Congregationalist ,which we have much enjoyed. We think it a worth while addition to the many activities of our fellow workers in the church. It helps keep the church fires burning.

Your fellow worker,.
L. J. Christian.

A NOBLE TESTIMONIAL

The "Rising Sun," a war paper published in London, has a fine letter written by an Australian officer regarding the Crystal Palace at Havre. It was formerly an elegant resort of all kinds of vice but was taken over by the Y. M. C. A. at a rental of about $9,000 a year and was immensely patronized by all sorts of soldiers. It was there that Rev. C. L. Pyatt served and tho the writer of the article was not a professing Christian he had seen so much of this place; of the fine entertainments provided for the men; the many creature comforts, baths, hot meals, reading rooms, writing rooms and the like that he wrote most enthusiastically after having seen its good work for a long time.

He told also of the hospital where the sick boys were cared for. He was a patient there awhile too and told a touching story of a Scotch boy next to him who was very low. His wounds were painful but when the nurse sang Annie Laurie it cheered him so he forgot his pain and went to sleep and awakened in the other world happy in the thought of home.

GLENN HOWARD WRITES TO PARENTS.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Howard have received a number of letters and post cards from their son Glenn who is with the army of occupation in Germany. He told recently of a trip down the Rhine and spoke in glowing terms of the beautiful scenery. He also sent a panoramic view of the historic places of interest along the Rhine which is being given to the men by the Y. M. C. A. Mr. Howard had been transferred from the 38th to the 32nd division and is hoping to arrive home some time in May.

GRACE CHAPEL S. S TO BE ORGANIZED

The Half Century of the Organization at Hebron Church.

One of the active, wide awake congregations in the county is that of the Hebron Methodist church. Fifty years ago a foreign missionary society was organized and ever since it has done good work for the less favored ones in heathen lands and, as is always the case, the blessing has come back to them many fold.

Some of the faithful ones have gone to their reward and some yet remain and all who have belonged have the assurance of having done valiant work for the Master.

A short time since the half century anniversary of the organization was celebrated when the following program was rendered.

Hymn—"Tell It Out Among the Nations."

Invocation by the pastor.

Scripture Lesson—Deut 8:10 20.

Hymn 653.

The pastor, Rev. G. T. Wetzel, preached a very interesting sermon from the text found in Matt. and Luke, "A Little Leaven leaveneth the whole lump," as illustrated by nine women who organized the society in 1869, March 23rd and which now counts its membership by thousands giving $6,245 to missions last year.

After the sermon came the collection, $125 being the goal and $70, of the amount was received.

This auxiliary at Hebron was first organized Dec. 17th 1882 at a meeting held in the church, Rev. W. F. T. Spruill pastor in charge, nineteen persons, twelve ladies, and seven gentlemen besame members:

Mrs. Elizeth Breckon, Mrs. W. F. T. Spruill, Mrs. Robert Hunter, Mrs. Hassell Hopper, Mrs. J. A. Swain, Mrs. Jennie C. Fox, Mrs. Mary Fox, Mrs. Thomas Swain, Mrs. J. A. Trotter, Mrs. G. R. Swain, and Miss Hannah Hopper, all charter members. In a short time the following ladies also joined the society:

Misses Emma Trotter, Mattie Hopper, Eva Wilson, Emma F. Dimmitt, Sarah J. Swain, Mary Maddox, Della Dimmitt, Maggie Gaines, Ethel Bloss, Alice Hunter.

Honorary members:

A CHILD HATES OIL, CALOMEL, PILLS FOR LIVER AND BOWELS

Give "California Syrup of Figs" If Cross, Sick, Feverish, Constipated

Look back at your childhood days. Remember the "dose" mother insisted on — castor oil, calomel, cathartics. How you hated them, how you fought against taking them.

With our children it's different. Mothers who clin gto the old form of physic simply don't realize what they do. The children's revolt is well founded. Their tender little "insides" are injured by them.

If your child's stomach, liver and bowels need cleansing, give only delicious "California Syrup of Figs." Its action is positive, but gentle. Millions of mothers keep this harmless "fruit laxative" handy; they know children love to take it; that it never fails to clean the liver and bowels and sweeten the stomach, and that a teaspoonful given today saves a sick child tomorrow.

Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. See that it is made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.—Adv.

PRODUCE MERCHANT GAINS 30 POUNDS

Is Also Relieved of Rheumatism Through Taking Course of Tanlac.

"I not only gained thirty pounds on a few bottles of Tanlac but can do more work than I have been able to do at any time in the last ten years," said C. B. Gwin, a well-known produce merchant of Amory, Miss.

"For a long time my system was debilitated," he continued, and my digestion out of order so I could hardly eat a thing. I suffered from awful headaches, my nerves were on a strain and my muscles felt like they were tied into knots with rheumatism; I lost weight and got weaker every day.

"I was induced to try Tanlac by a friend and it is making a new man of me. I now eat and sleep better than I have in years, my rheumatism is all gone and I feel stronger and better than I have in a long time."

Tanlac is sold in Jacksonville by Coover & Shreve.—Adv.

OLD RESIDENT GIVEN UP BY PHYSICIAN

"Given up by five doctors, my only hope an operation. I rebelled on cutting me open, as I am 75 years old. A neighbor advised trying Mayr's Wonderful Remedy for stomach trouble. I got relief right away. I had not eaten for 10 days and was as yellow as a gold piece. I could have lived only a few days but for this medicine." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments. One dose will convince or money refunded. For sale by druggists everywhere.—Adv.

DEALINGS ON STOCK EXCHANGE LIGHT

NEW YORK, March 27.—The most signficiant feature of the day on the stock exchange, aside from the prominence of a few specialties, was the steady diminution of dealings, the total being the smallest of any full session in several weeks.

Oil, motor and distilling shares led the stronger issues at gross gains of two to five points shipping, tobacco, leather and paper shares registered extreme advances of one to three points.

The strength of metals would have occasioned surprise in view of the reduced dividend on Inspiration Copper but for the fact that in tehhe metal trade an extension of the recent inquiry for the refined produce was reported.

Steels and equipments derived moderate strength from an encouraging statement issued by Judge Gary.

Easier rates for call money and advices from Paris reporting progress by the peace conference stimulated renewed activity by poois in recent speculative favorites, such as Mexican Petroleum, Texas Company, General Motors, Industrial Alcohol, Sinclair Oil, and American Sugar. Rails were again a source of disappointment failing to throw off their recent apathy except for a moderate inquiry from Union Pacific. Sales amounted to 650,000 shares.

Liberty Bonds displayed firmness. Total sales aggregated $12,875,000.

WEAKNESS DEVELOPS IN CORN MARKET

CHICAGO, March 27.—Weakness developed in the corn market today largely as a result of sharp declines in rye and barley and owing to reports that Argentine corn was being bought to come to this country. The close was heavy ⅝ to 2c net lower, with May $1.48 to 1.48⅛ and July $1.37 to 1.37½. Oats lost 1⅝ to 2¼c and provisions 7c to 15c.

Bearish sentiment which dominated the corn market during the last hour was in decided contrast with the fact that thruout the res of the day prices had shown gains. The rallies were ascribed to a renewal of confidence on the part of bulls who had been disturbed by estimates of a huge exportable surplus in Argentina and by gossip that prices for the March delivery had become artificial. Toward the end of the session it became evident that the market was overbought and prices crumbled rapidly.

Oats gave way with other cereals and because of expected rapiding seeding.

Provisions descended with corn. Packers sold.

160 Acre Stock Farm, Located 1¼ Miles from Good Market.

On the C. B. & Q., Scott Co., 5½ miles from county seat. Improvements: New 4 room house with summer kitchen, machine shed, barn, stock sheds, cribs with concrete feeding floors, farm scales, sheep shed and hog sheds; nothing run down on the place; has hog tight fences around farm and all of the cross fences are of woven wire.

There is 20 acres of growing wheat, 15 acres of rye, 10 acres meadow, balance blue grass; there will be 20 acres for corn this year, and if buyer wishes he can break 20 acres of the blue grass, which would give him 40 acres for corn, but I think the blue grass land is too rough to cultivate.

The owner sold off this farm last year $5600 worth of stuff.

The soil is all of the timber quality, rather light in color.

But, think of the price and location of this place, and if sold by April 1st all of the growing crops go with it. Possession at time of purchase.
